Phonographers complain that a certain one English word in a thousand is not correctly pronounced—that is, all its letters are not sounded, precisely as they are in the alphabet. And such criticism is perfectly just, though from the force of habit, we seldom notice the faulty orthography of common words. But if we most proper names of persons or places, their eccentric spelling is more observable, and sometimes even puzzling. Highly educated persons often hesitate in pronouncing a proper name which they see for the first time. This remark especially applies to some aristocratic surnames, as we see by the introduction of the subjoined, with their recognized pronunciation. Claimants must be sounded as if written. Clarendon, Derby, in speaking either of the peer, the town, or the race, should always be called Derby. Dillwyn is pronounced Dillion, with the accent on the first syllable. In Byth the th is dropped, and the word becomes Bly. Lyvden is pronounced as Lyden, and Pepsy as Pepis, with the accent on the first syllable. In Mionson and Tonsbury the first o becomes short u, and they are called Mynson, Punsbury. In Mount the o is silent, and the word is spoken as Blunt. Brongham, whether referring to the late illustrious statesman or the vehicle named after him, should not be pronounced as two syllables—Browham or Brooham—but as one—Broom. Colquhann, Luchessy, Marjoribanks, and Cholmondeley—four formidable names to the untutored—must be called Cahoon, Dukarn, Marshbanks, and Chumley. Cholmely is also called Chumley. Mainwaring as M'Leod must be pronounced Mainwaring and M'Leod. The final x in Molyneux and Vaux is sounded, but the final x in Devereux and Des Vaux is mute. In Ker the e becomes short a, and the word is called Kar; it would be awfully bad form to pronounce it Cur! In Waldegrave the de is dropped, and it becomes Walgrave, with the accent on the first syllable. Berkeley, whether referring to the person or place, should be pronounced Barkley. Buchanan is called Bunan; Beaulieu, or Beaulieu, is Beaulieu, with the accent on the first syllable; and Beauvoir as Beevor. Wemyss is pronounced as Weems, and Willoughby D'Eresby as Willowby D'Eresby. St. John must be Sinjin as a surname or Christian name; when applied to locality or a building, it is pronounced as spelt, Saint John. Montgomery, or Montgomerie, is pronounced Mungumery, with the accent on the second syllable. In Elgin's takes the hard sound it takes the soft sound as in gin—as it also does in Nigel. In Conyngham the o becomes short u, and the name is called Cunningham. In Johnstone the t is silent. Strachan should be called Strawn; Heathcote, Hethcut; and Hertford, Harford. The av is dropped in Abergeenny, which is called Abergeenny; and the n in Penzance, which is called Penrith. Beauchamp must be pronounced Beecham, Bourne, Brnn, and Bourke. Buck, lower, as a place, is pronounced as it is written, but as a surname, it becomes Gor. Eyre is called Air; and Du Plat is Du Plah. Jarvis should be pronounced Jarvis, Knollys as if written Knollys; Menzies as if written Mynies; and Macanara must be pronounced Macanara, with the accent on the first syllable. Sandys should be spoken as one syllable—Sands. St. Clark is also one word—Sinclair; and St. Leger is called Sellegor. Vaughn is spoken as one syllable—Vawn; and Villebois is Vilebois. Villiers is called Villiers, with the accent on the first syllable. Trywhit is called Tirrit; and Tollemache is pronounced Tollmash, with no accent on either syllable. The pronunciation of a dead Conservative Premier's title is Beckons'eld; Bethune should be spoken as Bithoun, and Villiers as Mills. Charities, those moving in what James calls the "Hupper Suckles," is pronounced Charters, and Glamis is called Glamis. Geoghegan is always spoken as Gagan, and Ruthven is pronounced Riven. It will be observed that most of the above names are much abbreviated in their pronunciation, as recognized by "society"—a fact which forms one of the many protests against the cumbersome nature of English orthography.

Couldn't Bother With a Drummer. Recently I was awaiting the convenience of one of these "aristocrats" whose store is in a small inland town in the State. While I was patiently putting in my time on a convenient chair a gentleman, carrying two grips similar to those used by drummers, entered with a business-like air, and putting his baggage upon the floor began to make a minute inspection of the contents of the show-cases. The drummer was arranging his window, and now and then casting an interested glance into a dressmaker's work room opposite. He paid no attention to the new arrival, supposing him, as he afterward tearfully remarked, to be only a drummer. The stranger glanced at him several times, and was plainly growing impatient. Finally he evidently decided that he had waited long enough, and with a muttered exclamation that he couldn't buy anything if he was shown anything, he seized his grips and vanished through the door before the astonished jeweler could recover his scattered senses. They were still more widely scattered a few days afterward when he learned that his competitor, a few blocks away, had sold the stranger a pair of diamond earrings and a two-carat stud. Now when a drummer comes into his store the auctioneer's obsequious manners almost make his visitor's hair stand on end in astonishment.

Preserving Wood. A plan recently introduced into Belgium for preserving wood from decay produced by the atmosphere, water, etc., is to fill the pores with a liquid gutta-percha, which is said to effectually preserve it from moisture and the action of the sun. The process employed consists in exhausting the air from the pores of the wood, and filling with gutta-percha solution. In pouring the solution into the pores, the soft gutta-percha is liquefied by mixing with paraffine in proportion of about two-thirds of gutta-percha to one-third of paraffine; the mixture is then submitted to the action of heat and the gutta-percha becomes sufficiently hard to seal the pores of the wood. The gutta-percha dissolved by this process hardens in the pores of the wood as soon as it becomes cold.

MISCELLANEOUS. ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure. This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kind, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of lowest short weight, adulterated, and impure powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 110 Wall Street, New York.

MY, HOW CHEAP! The above cut represents a suit made of Pine Wood, finished in imitation walnut or light color. Size of Bureau Glass, 18x30; seven pieces for $18. Best and cheapest suit ever made. Before ordering furniture of any kind write for our photographs and prices. Our trade has demanded that we carry the finest line of Bedroom and Parlor Furniture. And to-day we are selling to San Francisco, Oakland and other parts of the State. The San Francisco merchants, whose expenses are enormous, high, cannot compete with us. Our continuous increase of patronage is the best assurance that our efforts to please by careful attention, bottom prices and the carrying of a large and well-assorted stock, have been appreciated by our many patrons. Remember, our store covers more ground than any other furniture store in the State, and we have a stock including furniture of the very cheapest to very finest. Don't forget to send for photographs of articles you desire, and also the price list. It costs nothing. Satisfaction guaranteed.

HAVING learned that efforts are being made to create a prejudice against ladies as Committee clerks of the approaching Legislature, and having heard no convincing reasons for such a prescriptive course, we would inquire why the committee-room of a Legislative body, presumably composed of representative men of the State, is an unfit place for the most modest and refined lady in the commonwealth. The suggestion that certain Committees may be called upon to consider legislation pertaining to the "Social Evil" is no good reason for shutting out lady clerks, for a body of law-makers, not possessed of sufficient tact and ability to handle even as delicate a subject as this, without shocking the most modest and fastidious, are unfit for Legislators.

Give the girls a chance, and you will see that the committee reports of the session of 1889, instead of being the ungrammatical, misspelled, productions of former sessions, will be in the English language.

The vein of bourbonism which in some directions seems to exist even among Republican Editors, is a surprise to those who have heretofore regarded the press as being in advance of the masses, in all movements pertaining to the welfare of women as well as men.

The Picoe Record says that an anonymous "Press Reporter" in Virginia City has sent a lot of slush to the San Francisco papers about the probable successor of John P. Jones, should the Senator take the Treasury portfolio. He names about a dozen persons as among the most available. With one or two exceptions he could not have named a dozen less available. Twenty men in the State, not mentioned by the "Press Reporter" could be named, any one of whom would be more eligible than most any of the number on the "Press Reporter's" list.

THERE was a time when Murat Halstead thought that the calling of Senator Sherman into the Cabinet should be followed by the immediate adjournment of the Legislature so that Governor Forsaker might appoint Sherman's successor in the Senate. But Mr. Halstead has changed his mind. He now thinks it hazardous to stake two Senators on the complexion of the next Ohio Legislature. The learned editor's second thought was his best.

The facts stated regarding Dakota by Secretary Vilas, in his annual report, is in itself an indictment strong enough to justify the defeat of the Democratic party in the nation. However, in justice to Mr. Vilas as a partisan, it should be understood that his purpose was not to indict the Democratic party.

It is understood that the Governor says that his private Secretary, Judge Wells, wrote his late Thanksgiving proclamation, and that he knew nothing of its purpose until after it was printed. On the other hand, the Private Secretary says he did not write it. The inference is that they are both ashamed of it, as well they may be.

The Russian minister of finance has involved a brilliant scheme. It is to induce the Government of the United States to invest its surplus in Russian bonds. The minister has never heard, probably, that this Government has several hundred millions of its own bonds to pay off before it has any "surplus."

The exports from Nottingham, Eng., to the United States for the year ending Sept. 30, '88, on hoistery amounted to $1,816,977.43, and on lace $2,945,229.24.

Attempt to Destroy a Distillery.
CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—At 6 o'clock this morning an attempt was made to destroy Shufeldt & Co.'s distillery, in the northern portion of the city, with dynamite. Enough facts are not yet known to justify a conclusion as to whether it was the work of Anarchists or some one who has a personal grievance against the Shufeldts. At the hour mentioned the neighborhood was shaken by a tremendous explosion, shaking the buildings, breaking many panes of glass in the surrounding houses and causing the people to rush into the street in great alarm. An investigation showed that a bomb had been thrown, probably from the street, into a detached warehouse used for storing high wines. This building was shattered, the hoops burst off many of the casks and the heads of some were driven in. Soon after, a package wrapped in paper was discovered lying in the street. It contained several sticks of dynamite and fulminating caps. The fuse connected with the package showed evidence of having been lighted, but had gone out prematurely.

A hole about three feet square was torn in the roof. The intention evidently was to throw a bomb through the skylight, underneath which were several vats filled with a highly explosive liquid. Had this succeeded a score of buildings would have been wrecked, and 15,000 barrels of whiskey in the storehouse would have caused a conflagration. James D. Lynch, one of the proprietors, said he believed the explosion to be the work of the Whiskey Trust, which has frequently threatened vengeance because this company refused to join the Trust. He adds that one of the members of the Trust came to the distillery shortly after the explosion, but was compelled to leave, being threatened with violence. Fortunately nobody was in the building when the deed was committed, and nobody was hurt.

To be Reinforced.
CAIRO, Dec. 10.—A squadron of the Twentieth Hussars will reinforce the troops at Suakim.

London, Dec. 10.—The Government has ordered the troops now stationed on the Mediterranean to proceed to Suakim. A request for more troops at Suakim was made after Saturday's reconnoitering, and is believed to have been instigated by the Government itself as the easiest mode of retiring from an untenable attitude.

Death of a Prominent Business Man.

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—Elisha Atkins, one of the most successful business men in this city, died last night, aged 75 years. He was connected with Elder Ames in founding the Union Pacific, and for many years the first Vice President of that road. As a merchant, he conducted the Bay State Sugar Refinery, and owned a large sugar estate in Cuba.

An American Baseball Club Abroad.
NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—A World's copyright cable from Auckland, N. Z., December 10th, says: The Alameda, with the American baseball team on board, arrived here today. The trip was extremely pleasant, and after the first day or two there was no sea-sickness. Every one is in good health and we play here today.
J. M. WARD.

Would Like the English Mission.
NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—The Commercial Advertiser publishes an interview with Depew, in which he states that while he would not accept a position in the Cabinet, he would accept the position of Minister to England, should it be offered him.

Rear Admiral Leroy died at 1:40 P. M.

Reported Railway Wreck.
WORCESTER (Mass.), Dec. 10.—It is reported that two Boston & Albany trains were derailed at Ashland and three men killed. Wrecking and relief trains have been sent.

Two Steamers Beached.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 10.—The steamers Wally and Golden Grove are beached near this port. They have been in collision and both are badly damaged.

Denies the Authorship.
PARIS, Dec. 10.—Numa Gilly declares that he is not the author of the work, "Mes Dossiers," for the publication of which he has been sued.

Another Admiral Dying.
NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Admiral Leroy is sinking slowly and is not expected to live through another night.

Federal Nominations.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The President sent the following nomination to the Senate to-day: Judges of Probate, in Utah, James A. Melville of Millard county, John Houston of Garfield county, Francis A. Hammond of San Juan county, W. T. Stewart of Kanab county, Thomas S. Watson of Wasatch county, R. W. Cross of Weber county, W. C. McGregor of Iron county, Samuel Francis of Morgan county, and James A. Stark of Piute county; Superintendent of Indian Schools, Receiver of public money, George McGowan, at Drewsey, Oregon; Register of the Land Office, Robert J. Slater, of Drewsey, Oregon; Agent for Indians, Charles E. Vandever of Indiana, for the Navajo Agency, N. M.; Captain Peter D. Vroom of the Third Cavalry, for Inspector-General, with the rank of Major; Captain Edward Hunter of the First Cavalry, Judge Advocate, with the rank of Major; Capt. Geo. B. Davis of the Fifth Cavalry, for Judge Advocate, with the rank of Major; First Lieutenant Robert Craig of the Fourth Artillery, for First Quartermaster, with the rank of Captain; Captain Douglas M. Scott of the First Infantry, Commissary of Subsistence, with the rank of Captain; First Lieutenant Charles Hay of the Twenty-third Infantry, Commissary of Subsistence, with the rank of Captain, and William Joseph Larkin of Illinois, Past Chaplain.

A Dangerous Tumble.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Dec. 10.—The wreck on the Atlantic & Pacific yesterday evening was at a point called Crockett, in Johnson's Canyon, the wildest place on the whole line. The engine jumped the track when near the head of the canyon, and the engine, tender, mail, baggage, express and one emigrant car, rolled down the steep and rocky side of the mountain, a distance of one hundred and fifty feet, and were piled up in a confused mass at the bottom. The most of the other coaches were pulled off the track but did not go down the hill. Mail Agent B. S. Holts, Baggageman Chas. Rodeneyer and the engineer and fireman, with a considerable number of passengers, were badly injured, but not one was killed. The company controls the telegraph line, and would not permit anything in regard to the accident to be sent out, consequently no information could be obtained until the arrival of the train this morning.

To Be Disarmed—A Fire.

BEVIER, Mo., Dec. 10.—When Governor Morehouse arrived he found the contending factions armed to the teeth and refusing to recognize any authority save the militia. The leaders stated that they were not disposed to question the authority of the State, but declined to surrender to the county authorities. Governor Morehouse therefore called out the militia to give the belligerents an opportunity to surrender their arms. The fire last night was most disastrous, destroying a greater portion of the business section of Bevier. No doubt the conflagration was incendiary, but there is no evidence upon which anyone can be convicted. It is understood that the military, under the direction of Governor Morehouse, will disarm both factions, and temporarily restore order.

The Senate Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—At 10 o'clock the Senate resumed consideration of the Tariff bill, the pending question being Harris' amendment to reduce the duty on "beans, garden, peas, lentils, etc., and all structural shapes of iron or steel" from 11-10 cents per pound to 6-10 of a cent. The amendment was advocated by Reagan, but as McPherson desired to offer amendments at the beginning of the metal schedule Harris temporarily withdrew his amendment. McPherson thereupon moved to amend paragraph 120, as to iron in pigs, etc., by reducing the duty from 3-10 of a cent per pound to 26 per ton. Rejected—yeas 20, nays 22. Mr. Plumb voted with the Republicans in the negative.

A Disgraced Official.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Judge Edgerton of Indiana, Chairman of the Civil Service Commission, left Washington to-day for home. It is said that before leaving he handed his resignation to the President. Certain it is that he is dissatisfied with the manner in which the President has allowed the Republican end of the Commission, with the help of Oberly, to bend the public service to the civil service law. The President's order, bringing the railway mail service within the provisions of civil service, was the last straw.

The Spanish Cabinet.

MADRID, Dec. 10.—According to the latest outline of the proposed Cabinet, Senor Vega Amijo, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Cavaljas, of Commerce, and Admiral Arias, of Marine, will retain their places. The other members are to be General Chinchilla, of War; Xiquena, of Interior; Vanecio Gonzalez, of Finance; Brera, of Colonies and Cadepoon of Justice.

Jealous of England.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 10.—At a meeting at the foreign office, high military authority urged that an ultimatum be sent to the Persian Government, warning it that Russia would take steps for the occupation of Persia unless it cancelled the treaty, opening up the Karun country to the English. De Geirs opposed such a course, and advised the government to proceed with moderation.

Engineers on a Strike.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—The engineers of the boats of the New York Steam Lighterage and Transportation Co. are on a strike against a reduction of wages. The steamer Aurelia arrived this morning and was detained at quarantine. What the nature of the sickness on board is, if any, was not learned.

A Truly Lunatic Suicide.

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—John A. Martin, an Engineer, married, shot and probably fatally wounded his boarding keeper, Mrs. A. B. Merrill, and then killed himself because she did not reciprocate his affection.

Wanted Mollie Snyder.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., Dec. 10.—William Benson, a farm hand, is under arrest for killing his employer, Jacob Mottweiler, and wounding Mrs. Mottweiler, probably fatally, late yesterday on a farm near here. The killing was a result of a quarrel, because Benson wanted to marry the servant girl, Mollie Snyder.

A Dying Prince.

BERLIN, Dec. 10.—Prince Alexander of Hesse, uncle of Grand Duke Ludwig, is dying.

Our Candidate for President.

He will be nominated by the convention and will be elected by the people, because he will come the nearest to filling their ideal of a Chief Magistrate. Electric Bitters has been given the highest place, because to other medicines as well filled the ideal of a perfect tonic and alterative. The people have endorsed Electric Bitters, and rely upon this great remedy in all troubles of the liver, stomach and kidneys. For all malarial fevers and diseases caused by malarial poisons, Electric Bitters cannot be too highly recommended. Also cures headache and constipation. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Price 50 cents and $1 at Hodgkinson's drug store.

"EXTRA STAR" KEROSENE!

Best and Safest Oil Manufactured.

Strictly Water White. Guaranteed 150° fire test.

TOO MUCH CARE CANNOT BE TAKEN when purchasing Coal Oil, to obtain an article that will be perfectly safe and of good burning quality. The fact is now generally recognized that our "STAR" and "EXTRA STAR" Oils are the safest and best illuminating oils ever offered, being superior in fire test and burning quality to all others. These oils are remarkably uniform, which is a decided advantage to the consumer. They will cost no more than inferior brands that are being put on the market branded "High Fire Test," but which are really only "top" to "top," rendering them very unsafe oils for family use. We guarantee the "EXTRA STAR" better in every respect than the Elame, Downers, or any of the fancy brands sold at higher prices. We have had great difficulty in obtaining a sufficient supply to meet the large and increasing demand for our brands. A full supply, however, has just arrived, and we are now in condition to fill orders promptly. Give these oils a trial and you will use no other. We quote "Star" Oil at 22c per gal., lots to suit; "Extra Star" at 24c per gal., lots to suit.

WHITTEY, FULLER & CO.,

JOTTINGS.

J. F. Aitken is prepared to deliver in any part of the town dry firewood of any length desired.

Go to John Belz for a good clean shave or hair-cut. You don't have to wait, for he runs three chairs.

Lovely tea-gowns, something new, just received at F. Levy & Bros'. The very thing for an Xmas present.

Maple syrup, Chase & Sanborn coffee, mince meat, oranges, all kinds of dried fruit at E. C. Landbyster's.

For five cents you can get at C. J. Brookins' a good free-smoking cigar or more nice tally than you can consume in a day.

There is no finer beer, wines or liquors in town than can be had at George Becker's Granite saloon. Drop in and see for yourself.

There is nothing in the line of the best stationery and blank-books that cannot be had at C. A. Thurston's Virginia-street news depot.

As before remarked in this column, don't throw away your hard earnings for poor meats while J. Frazer is selling the best for less money.

By having your hair-cutting and shaving done at C. Coleman's shop almost anybody will be able to mistake you for a real gentleman.

J. J. Becker's hot lunches and Boca and Sacramento beer continue to attract those who do not have time to go home for their noon lunches.

The Pioneer Hotel, under the management of Mr. Cooper, seldom has an empty bed, and its tables are lined by those who can appreciate good usage.

It is not an uncommon thing to hear overland passengers from the East say that the Depot Hotel sets a better table than any railroad house between here and the Atlantic seaboard.

A. E. Mellish, scientific optician, is in the city taking orders for spectacles and eyeglasses. He makes a specialty of special glasses for difficult and complicated cases; prepares and adjusts only the very best grades of pebble, crown, flint and crystal lenses. All work guaranteed. Call or address Golden Eagle Hotel.

Dr. Se-an-ko, In his new discovery for Consumption, succeeded in procuring a medicine which is acknowledged by all to be simply marvellous. It is exceedingly pleasant to the taste, perfectly harmless, and does not sicken. In all cases of Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Croup, Bronchitis, and Pains in the Chest, it has given universal satisfaction. Dr. Se-an-ko's Cough and Lung Syrup is sold at 50 cents by S. J. Hodgkinson.

KILLED ON THE TRACK.

A Man Fatally Injured by a Light Engine.

Last Saturday evening about 5 o'clock as a light engine on its way from Truckee to Reno rounded a curve about eight miles west of here, the engineer discovered a man in an apparently drunken condition lying beside the track, with his head on or very near the rail, and before he could materially slacken the speed of his engine the man was struck on the head, causing a wound from which he died during the night. The name of the deceased was John Easchus, who for the past five months has been acting as a farm hand on Dr. Hogan's ranch, and was about 35 years old. He leaves a widow and two children, who are living in Reno. On the arrival at Reno of the engine above referred to, Superintendent Whitted, who happened to be here, ordered the "swing" train to follow the regular passenger out to bring the injured man to Reno, and as above stated, the sufferer did not live through the night.

Meat Market.

Following are the rates for whole carcasses from slaughterers to dealers: Beef—First quality, 6½¢; second quality, 5½¢; third quality, 5¢ per pound.

Wool—Quotable at 50¢ for large and 70¢ for small.
 Cotton—Quotable at 60¢ per pound.

Lamb—Quotable at 8½¢ per pound.

Pork—Live hogs, on foot, grain fed, 60¢; soft, 5½¢; dressed hogs, 8½¢ per pound.

Believed From Her Sufferings.

As anticipated by Saturday's GAZETTE, Miss Ida Kline did not live to see another day, but quietly passed away about 12 o'clock, leaving her parents and other members of the family to mourn her untimely demise. It required a greater degree of faith than is possessed by this writer to be convinced that the intense suffering and death of one so young and interesting was "all for the best." The funeral will take place from the Congregational Church tomorrow at 2 o'clock.

State Land Office.

During the week ending December 7th, seven applications for State land were filed, embracing 560 acres.

CASH RECEIPTS.

Payments on application.....$ 190.00
 Second and full payment.....1,150.00
 Payments on contracts.....22.50
 Interest payments.....228.55
 Total.....$1,591.05

Twenty contracts were signed and completed in duplicate, covering 4,133.70 acres, drawing interest at six per cent. per annum.

Stock Shipments.

Last Saturday ten cars of cattle and one car of horses, shipped at Argenta and consigned to Horn & Chapman, San Francisco, were re-shipped here. Today John Slavan shipped to Grayson, Owen & Co., Oakland, sixteen cars of beef cattle, five cars of which were those purchased from Ward Bros. Saturday evening D. C. Wheeler shipped to San Francisco eleven cars of mutton sheep and today he shipped twelve cars more.

K. of P. Masquerade.

This event, to take place January 1, 1889, promises to be the ball of the season. It will be strictly an invitation party, and every effort will be made to make it a success in every particular. Several elegant prizes will be offered, and successful contestants will be amply rewarded for their pains. The Committee of Arrangements will attend to all details, and invitations will be sent out to-morrow.

A Warning to Parents.

Parents having daughters of from 14 to 16 years of age, are warned against a couple of duds, who instead of courting the society of young ladies of a more mature age, are in the habit of walking about evenings in the sparsely inhabited parts of the town with young girls who certainly need looking after.

Masonic Election.

At the regular monthly meeting of Reno Lodge, No. 13, F. and A. M., held Saturday evening, the following officers were elected: W. L. Bechtel, W. M.; H. Warner, S. W.; W. A. Martin, J. W.; T. K. Hyman, Treasurer; S. M. Jamison, Secretary.

H. A. M. Election.

At a meeting of Reno Chapter, No. 7, R. A. M., held on Thursday night, the following were elected officers for the ensuing year: W. L. Bechtel, High Priest; Harry Fogg, King; C. A. Bragg, Scribe; H. F. Kraus, Treasurer; L. L. Crockett, Secretary.

A New Incorporation.

Appointed Officers.

Last Saturday, Acting Governor Davis appointed J. A. Blossom Commissioner of Lander county, vice J. F. Whittle, resigned; also C. E. Mack as Notary Public, to reside in Virginia City.

Fine Percheron Horses.

This morning thirty-three head of fine Percheron stallions, shipped at St. Louis, Mo., by W. B. Collier, and consigned to Lakeport, Cal., passed west in two of Arm's palace horse-cars.

Death at the Hospital.

P. S. Olson, an inmate of the County Hospital, died this morning of what is thought to be an abscess on the brain. An autopsy will be made this afternoon.

A Pleasant Menace.

Of health and strength renewed and of ease and comfort follows the use of Syrup of Figs, as it acts in harmony with nature to effectually cleanse the system when constive or bilious. For sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists.

For forty years, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has been demonstrated to be the most reliable remedy in use for colds, coughs and lung diseases. Slight colds should not be neglected. The Pectoral will prevent this becoming chronic.

BREVITIES.

Local and General Intelligence.

The streets are in fine condition again.

During November the Confidence mine produced $195,600 in bullion.

The Golden Gate vestibule train passed East yesterday morning at 3:40.

Send your orders to W. O. H. Martin if you want good goods at low prices.

Attention is called to the ad. on first page of the Studebaker Bros. Manufacturing Co.

The Grand Restaurant is doing a fine business and growing in popularity daily.

The funeral this afternoon of the late Mrs. John Hymers, was largely attended.

Archie Allen of Storey county is said to be a candidate for Speaker of the Assembly.

Paymaster Mills, of the V. & T., was in town last evening paying off for November.

There are only about 803 head of beef cattle being fed in Sierra Valley at this time.

Reno will have no trouble in disposing of her 8,000 head of beef, at good prices, before Spring.

J. C. Strickland has rented the Riverside stable and is going to start a livery, feed and sale stable.

Mutton sheep are pretty good property just now. They are quick sale, and good prices rule the market.

Reno is well lighted. No less than seven electric lights shed their glare to light the belated traveler home.

Vard Bros. sold six cars of cattle to John Slavan today for 5½¢ cents, and Sparks & Tinnin sold him nine cars.

Two women, one in New York and the other on the Mississippi, have recently been licensed to command vessels.

It does not matter whether "Big Bertha's" ball is reduced or not, so long as you patronize Berry & Nevacovich.

The Pollard House is a good hotel to stop at. Under the management of J. W. Killeen, it is all that could be desired.

Considerable prospecting is said to be going on at the east side of Washoe Lake, where gold gravel has been found.

There are now 167 patients in the Insane Asylum, a gain of 32 since the insane were brought over from Stockton in July, 1882.

The Inyo Independent says the rains of two weeks ago started the grass in that section and that the pasture is now good.

E. W. Crutcher shipped in a carload of his famous black cattle Saturday, and is having them fed at the ranch of Enoch Morrill. He also has a head being fed at Old River, in Churchill county.

An open, wet Winter is what we want to make the country prosperous next season, but if we can't get that give us one of blizzards and deep snow. Anything, Oh! Lord, in preference to a dry season.

The week opens dull in live stock traffic. No sales to record or improvement in prices to chronicle. A first quality beef is quoted at 8½¢ and 9½¢ cents, but better prices are sure to rule before many days.

The Carson Tribune is authority for the statement that a portion of the wall of the new Government building had to be taken down and rebuilt, the cause being that it was not plumb.

Superintendent Ryland will have no "leaning tower" of any work he supervises.

A Board of Trade for Quincy.

QUINCY, Dec. 6, 1888.

EDITOR GAZETTE: The citizens of Quincy, Plumas county, met on last Tuesday evening and selected a committee of seven to draw up association articles preparatory to organizing a Board of Trade in this city. A large number of the business men of Quincy were present, and a great interest was taken in the matter. The meeting adjourned to meet Thursday evening to complete the organization.

Business of every kind is looking up. The Plumas House is doing its usual amount of business. The Plumas National, under the management of Pete Halstead, is flourishing. More anon. QUINCY.

Not a California Bear.

Anybody can catch a cold this kind of weather. The trouble is to let go, like the man who caught the bear.

We advise our readers to purchase of Osburn & Shoemaker a bottle of Santa Abie, the California King of Consumption, Croup, Bronchitis, Cough and Croup Cures, and keep it handy. ## EARLY REMINISCENCES.

What Was Being Done Twelve Years Ago To-day.

Twelve years ago to-day J. F. Cooke informed the GAZETTE that the then coming spring would witness the erection of a fine building on the corner of Virginia street and Commercial Row.

"Babes in the Woods" was played in Dyer's Hall.

Commercial Row was to be very much improved on the completion of the Marshall brick.

R. S. Osburn, of Simpson & Osburn, sailed the Saturday before from San Francisco for Oregon.

The county officers-elect were hunting their bondsmen.

W. H. Young and Isaac Chamberlain were appointed Deputy Sheriffs by Sheriff Lamb.

The Reno Gas Company were laying their mains.

A committee was appointed by President Hatch of the Board of Trade to draft a rough act of incorporation for Reno.

A. A. Evans, (Pete) was making inquiries in San Francisco about a town clock.

Dave McFarland had a fight. The weather was cold.

N. C. Haslund was making collection to pay off the debt on the public library.

Mollie McCarthy won the great four-mile race in San Francisco in 7:38½ and 7:52½.

PERSONAL.

Edwin Ferris of Long Valley was in town yesterday.

A. Hanak of Virginia City went below last night.

J. R. Vail of Fort Churchill was in town yesterday.

F. A. Horn returned from San Francisco this morning.

Miss H. E. Irish returned this morning from a visit to San Francisco.

Theodore Winters and Dan Wheeler left to-day for Smoke Creek.

Charley Johnson, the drayman, is reported down with pneumonia.

H. M. Yerington and wife returned yesterday morning from the Bay.

E. B. Rail of Carson and C. Derby returned this morning from San Francisco.

Major C. W. Borton goes to San Francisco this evening to replenish his stock of dry goods.

State Senator-elect Charles Sproule of Elko arrived here last evening and went to Carson to-day.

J. H. Kindeed came down from the Comstock Saturday evening to spend Sunday with his family.

Judge Rising, General Clarke, L. F. Wrinkle and Alfred Chantz returned Saturday night from Elko.

James Gregory of Wadsworth and Gabriel Cohn, the traveling solicitor, were in town last evening.

Uncle Bob Patterson, one of the few surviving discoverers of Mount Davidson, was in Reno last evening.

Mrs. S. M. Fassett and daughter, Mrs. C. T. Bender, left last evening on a visit to California relatives and friends.

D. L. Bliss, W. D. Tobey, Henry Martin and T. R. Hofer, all of Carson City, went below on last evening's overland.

J. A. Blossom, the Battle Mountain capitalist, returned yesterday morning from San Francisco and spent the Sabbath in Reno.

Johnny Batchelder, solicitor for Huntington, Hopkins & Co., was in town on Saturday and left for home on the evening train.

J. E. Eckley, the first State Printer of Nevada, came down from the Comstock last evening to meet his wife, who has been visiting California friends.

W. E. Whiting, agent for the Studebaker Manufacturing Company of San Francisco, who has been here for several days past, departed for San Francisco last night.

Senator and Mrs. Leland Stanford have gone to Washington via the Southern route. At Fort Yuma they were presented with baskets of oranges, lemons and olives, grown in that vicinity.

L. D. Folsom left last Saturday evening for San Francisco, where he went to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, Hon. David McClosure, whose death was noticed in Saturday's GAZETTE.

Reducing the Surplus.

The disposition of the surplus in the U. S. Treasury engages the attention of our Statesmen, but a more vital question has our attention, and that is the reduction of the Surplus Consumption. Since the discovery and introduction of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, there has been a marked decrease in the mortality from this dreaded disease, and it is possible to still further reduce the number of consumptives. How? By keeping constantly at hand a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and using according to directions, upon the appearance of the first symptoms, such as a cough, a cold, a sore throat, a chest or side pain. Taken thus early a cure is secured. Trial bottles free at Hudgkinson's drug store.

A Bloody Affray.

At Birmingham, Alabama, last Saturday a mob undertook to take from the jail a man by the name of Hawes, charged with the murder of his wife and twenty-year-old daughter. The Sheriff and an armed posse defended the jail with arms, which resulted in the wounding mortally of five men and the serious wounding of seven others. The prisoner was not captured.

If your back aches or if you are suffering from inflammation of the kidneys, seminal weakness, brick dust deposit in the urine, or in fact any kidney, urinary or liver complaint do not waste any money on worthless liniments or plasters, but strike the root of the disease at once by using the greatest of all known remedies, Oregon Kidney Tea. It is pleasant to take, is purely vegetable, and has never failed to give entire satisfaction. Sold by Wm. Finner.

Special Meeting.

The members of Fidelity Lodge No. 4, I. O. G. T., are requested to meet at their hall to-morrow (Tuesday) at 12:30 o'clock, to make the necessary arrangements for attending the funeral of our late sister, Ida Kline.

A. BACKUS, W. C. T.

F. NORCROSS, Secretary.

Tune up the system and improve the appetite by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It will make you feel like a new person. Those who have found health, and relief from suffering, by the use of this great blood purifier, when all other means failed.

THE STATE FAIR.

The Date Fixed for Holding the Next Meeting.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the State Board of Agriculture was held Saturday, at which President Winters and Directors Evans, White and Powning were present. It was decided that the meeting of 1889 should be held during the week commencing September 28th and ending October 3d. The following fixed events were ordered advertised at once:

FIXED EVENTS, 1889, 1890 AND 1891.

A WONDERFUL REMEDY

The value of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, in the protection it affords from the dangers of pulmonary disorders, cannot be over-estimated. Mr. C. K. Phillips, Pittsburg, Pa., writes: "About three years ago I had severe Laryngitis, which resulted in chronic hoarseness. By the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral I have since entirely regained my health." Mr. Henry Russell, Excelsior Printing Co., New York, writes: "Influenza became epidemic in my neighborhood. Several members of my family suffered severely with it, all of whom took Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and were cured by it in a few days. It is a wonderful medicine for Influenza. Too much cannot be said in its favor."

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

has cured a Cough in a few doses. It always relieves irritation of the lungs on throat, and arrests the tendency to inflammation. It strikes at the foundation of all Pulmonary diseases, is without a rival as an expectorant, and is a sure cure for the most obstinate Coughs and Colds. L. Garrett, Texarkana, Texas, writes: "I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for twenty years. For throat and lung diseases, I consider it a wonderful remedy."

The Story Told by a Professional Rat-Catcher in Philadelphia.

"I have caught and killed plenty of big rats in my time, but the biggest ones were captured along the wharves," said the old Jack Gregory, or "English Jack," as he is called by his acquaintances.

Gregory is a little old fellow, not more than five feet in height, and pressing close upon his sixtieth year. He lives in Camden, on Williams street, below Keydon. When he starts out on his rat-catching expeditions he is always accompanied by two little Scotch terriers, chained together. With a box of ferrets thrown over his shoulder, "English Jack" presents an odd picture.

"I have followed rat-catching for a living for forty years," said Gregory; "but the most vicious chaps are generally found along the wharves, near where the sewers empty into the river. They grow up in the sewers, and eventually find their way to the water's edge, and there settle permanently, or else take up quarters in the warehouses near the docks."

I don't mind clearing a stable of rats. That's fun for me. But when I am called upon to clean out a warehouse I always know that it means tough work, with probably the loss of two or three ferrets. Nine times out of ten, a rat will run away from a ferret, and when they emerge from their holes my dogs and I just lay for them and kill them as soon as they show themselves. But I have had many a valuable ferret killed by wharf rats. The rats being used to eating garbage, greedily devour everything they come across, and grow to be tremendously large. I have seen lots that were as big as cats, and ferocious fellows they were, too. I remember once of a pitched battle that took place between three of my ferrets and five rats, down at the sugar-boiling house on Delaware avenue, below South street. Each rat was fully from fifteen to eighteen inches in length, and must have weighed from four to five pounds. They had it hot and heavy for a quarter of an hour. The ferrets fairly chewed the rats to pieces and came out victorious, though they got severely bitten themselves. Subsequently one of the ferrets died.

"That night I succeeded in killing ninety rats. But I have seen larger rats than those in my time. A few years ago my dogs caught a rat down at the Washington avenue grain elevator which was much bigger than that cat. It was two feet long and weighed twenty pounds. He must have been quite old and unusually fat. I guess he was the king rat about the elevator. I was very anxious to capture him alive, and it was hard work to drive the dogs off, so eager were they to put an end to him. He had fought them hard, notwithstanding his age, and the dogs had their dander up. I managed to drag them away, and then I threw a net around him and brought him home to Camden. I doctored him for three weeks, and his wounds healed pretty well. A saloon keeper near the old navy yard made me an offer of $20 and I sold the rat to him to place on exhibition. He did not make much by the venture, as the saloon keeper's wife was afraid of the big rat, and being anxious to get rid of the animal, he put it on exhibition. While the animal was on exhibition there was a sign displayed on the iron cage in which it was confined, saying: 'Don't fool with the rat.' This injunction was rather unnecessary, for all the customers willingly refrained from poking their fingers between the bars to touch him up. His looks were enough to frighten folks."

Reconstructing a Shark.

When the famous phosphate beds were discovered in South Carolina, some years ago, vast numbers of bones and teeth were unearthed, showing that in early times this locality had been peopled by a great concourse of strange forms. Among the most abundant curiosities, as the workmen termed them, were quantities of enormous teeth, peculiar in shape, and serrated on the cutting edge. When shown to a naturalist they were immediately recognized as shark teeth, and it became evident that at one time the vicinity of Charleston was the bed of an ocean, and that gigantic sharks flourished there in great numbers. Whenever the beds of the Ashley and Cooper rivers are dredged to-day numbers of these teeth are brought up, and one in my collection is nearly if not quite as large as my hand. As the bones of the shark are of cartilage, they have long since been destroyed, and only these beautifully polished teeth—for they are as fresh and glistening as when first discovered—are left to tell the story. It would appear to be an impossible task to restore this giant from a single tooth. But it is not so difficult as one might imagine. From the shape of the tooth of the great Carcharodon we can form some idea of its appearance by comparing it with existing sharks, and from its size we can determine how large it was. One day I attempted a rough restoration to gain some idea of the dimensions of the jaw of a shark which I had caught in the Gulf of Mexico, which would at the time pass readily over my shoulders. The shark was about thirteen feet long, and the teeth about an inch and two-eighths wide, and an inch and a half in length. There were eight rows of these, each row being a little smaller than the last, until they dwindled down to mere points. I took as many of the fossil teeth as I had, and built up a jaw after the existing model, using teeth where I had them, and leaving space where I did not. Gradually the great mouth grew on the floor until I found myself a small item in the area, completely completed. I found that the largest fossil shark could have opened its mouth and allowed me to drive in a top-buggy, and that its length could not have been less in proportion than one hundred and twenty-five or thirty feet.—C. F. Holder, in Wide Awake.

Nitro-Glycerine.

Dr. M. H. Leaskerstein, of Chicago, reports the remarkable effects of nitro-glycerine in resuscitating life. His patient was a woman, who sank rapidly and was apparently dead. Any further action of the heart was impossible, the temperature of the body had fallen to 32 degrees F., and every indication of death was present. A solution of nitro-glycerine was administered hypodermically, when there was a gasp, followed by three breaths within a minute. During the second minute six respirations were noted, but no faint fluttering of the heart, but no wrist pulse was discernible. During the third minute eighteen respirations were evident and a feeble pulse. During the fourth minute the pulse rose to 180 and above the face was flushed, the eyes rolled, the muscles slowly relaxed and the patient became comfortable.

Christians are like the several flowers in the garden, that have each of them the dew of heaven, which being shaken with the wind, they let fall at each other's roots, whereby they are jointly nourished, and become nourishers of each other.

"We don't make money here," said the courteous Chief Clerk of the Assay Office; "that is, we don't convert bullion into coin. We receive gold and silver from depositors, melt and assay the bullion, form it into bars and ship the bars to the Philadelphia Mint, and in the course of a few days that institution sends us back the coin. Government furnishes us with a bullion fund amounting to over thirty-five million dollars, out of which we pay the depositor just as soon as the fineness of his metal is determined by assay, the weight ascertained, and the value calculated. In fact, all our deposits, except in case of re-melt and re-assay, are made within two days."

"Now," said he, picking up a bright new double eagle, "you know how easy it is to spend that coin, but unless you are familiar with the work you can form no idea of the time and labor it took to make it. From the time the bullion from which this double eagle was made reached the mint, until it was converted into coin, it had passed through no less than ten distinct processes, such as melting, alloying, forming the metal into ingots, rolling the ingots into strips the thickness of a coin, cutting from the strips the 'planchets' or 'blanks,' annealing, milling and adjusting the 'blanks' and coining or stamping the pieces, besides sundry minor operations incidental to milling. Now, examining that coin closely under the glass, and see how well the work is executed. The Romans excelled in the art of engraving, and many of the coins were masterpieces. But we cannot afford to throw up our central designs in such bold relief as the Romans did, for in the hurry and bustle of our day and the rapid handling and piling of coins, we would soon wear the face off the goddess and wings of the eagle. So, while our designs are in bold relief, yet we make them low and protect them as much as possible from abrasion and wear by 'throwing up' the edge of the blank, technically called 'milling.'"

"The manufacture of dies, or the art of 'die sinking,' has reached great perfection at the Philadelphia Mint, and all the coinage dies or other mints are made at that institution. The artist makes the design, and then a model of it in wax, three or four times larger than the desired coin. From this model an electrotype is taken, and then the design is transferred by means of a Hill engraving machine, which works on the principle of a penicograph, to a block of steel the size of the coin. But as only the principal design, such as the head, eagle, or shield, can be thus transferred, the artist fills in by hand the stars, date, and all surrounding details. Then, after removing the ground on the face of the block, he strikes from the block an impression into, and upon a second block. This second block is hardened and an impression is transferred to a third similar block, which we call the 'parent die' or 'master hub' and from which the regular coinage dies are made. The impression on the 'master hub' is in relief, or convex, while that on the 'working' or coinage die is 'intaglio,' or concave.

"But let us see what they are doing in here," said the Chief Clerk, as he stepped into the 'Weigh Room,' where truck loads of silver were being weighed. "That scale you see there is a model of accuracy, and will weigh from ten thousand ounces down to one-hundredth part of an ounce. This small balance weighs from twenty ounces down to the one-hundredth part of a grain. In fact, the scale must have accuracy in this work, not only to check our operations, but to maintain the reputation of this office, which is such that our stamp of weight and fineness passes current in all the commercial centers of the world."

For Coin Collectors.

A coin is said to be "proof" when it is specially struck by hand press, instead of by steam press, from a polished planchet, and a "proof set" is a complete set of proofs of current coins. A "pattern piece" is an early specimen of proof from a newly adopted coinage die or dies. An impression in soft metal to test an experimental die is called a "trial piece." When a piece is struck from regular dies on an experimental die, with regular die patterns, devices or designs it is denominated an "experimental piece." Trial and experimental pieces, struck for mint purposes only, will not be issued, circulated or sold. Pieces popularly known as testpieces, false patterns, or metal replicas, or copies, are prohibited by the revised statute. Proof and pattern pieces are sold by the superintendent of the mint. The superintendent will furnish without charge, a pattern piece to any incorporated numismatic society in the United States. In such cases, if the pattern be in gold or silver the value of the metal will be required.

Booksellers of Paris.

In Paris, they will not sell you a book for five hundred francs and let it go afterward at your own auction sale for a hundred dollars. If they have sold you a "frenchman's" sort of a book, their dignity as well as their interest will make them redeem it at the price they have made you pay, or not much less. It is the ambition of every bookseller not to become wealthy in ten or twenty years, but to become a bibliophile; perhaps because many of the best books are the body's desire to be of the privileged few, perhaps because honors are prized more than riches there. It is silly to turn up after a bit of red ribbon for the apd of one's coat, but it is not for the bibliophile who runs mad after book-kinding to say so. Moreover, the man who would rather have a red ribbon than a fortune, if a bookseller, is the man for a bibliophile. Valuable books are not to be sold like old boots; there must be some show of feeling about it.

The Test of Eternity.

"Will your work stand the test of time, my friend?" asked the minister. "I think it will," replied young Mr. Sweetnote, who had published a volume of love-love poems. "It has been on the market for four years, and the publisher reports six copies sold, and they are copies I bought myself. I am only afraid it will have to stand the test of eternity."

In Fine Condition.

Maid (to mistress)—James, the footman, says, mum, as what he caught cold last night, an' has a very stiff neck. Mistress—Tell him to have the carriage at the door, Maria, in half an hour. I have some shopping to do. (Turning to daughter)—For once, my dear, I think James will be able to hold his head as I have endeavored to teach him to.

THE CENTURY

MAGAZINE IN 1889.

WHY Has it such an enormous circulation? Experts estimate that between two and three millions of people read each number.

BECAUSE THE CENTURY is above every other thing a leader. It led the development of wood-engraving in America, and it has fostered American authors. It is alive to the issues of to-day. What it prints sets people to thinking and talking.

BECAUSE Whatever other periodicals the great reading world has found out that "no household can keep abreast of the times so easily" as THE CENTURY. Its success is explained by its contents.

BECAUSE The greatest writers of the world like to have their work read by the greatest number, and therefore to such a magazine as THE CENTURY the best naturally comes. It was THE CENTURY that General Grant first wrote his reminiscences of important battles.

BECAUSE It is publishing the life of Abraham Lincoln, by his private secretary. Of this it has been said: "The young man who is not reading it robs himself of that which he will hunger for." The coming year presents the most important part of this great history, which may begin at any time.

BECAUSE It is printing those remarkable articles on "Siberia and the Kizil System," by George Kennan, which are attracting universal attention and are being reprinted in hundreds of foreign newspapers, but are not allowed to enter Russia. The "Chicago Tribune" and a series of other magazine articles printed in the English language just now touch upon a subject which so vitally interests all thoughtful people in Europe and America and Asia. They are as judicious as the opinion of a Supreme Court tribunal—as thrilling as the most sensational drama.

BECAUSE During 1889 THE CENTURY is to have a series of engravings of the greatest pictures of the old Italian masters, made by Timothy Cole, the leading wood-engraver in the world, who has spent four years in Italy on this work; a series of "Strange True Stories of Louisiana," by Geo. W. Cable; occasional richly illustrated papers describing the scenes of the current International Sunday-school lessons; interesting illustrated papers on Ireland, and a series of humorous and pathetic Irish-American stories; a striking illustrated novella, "The Romance of Dollard," by a new writer, and other novel; a test to be announced later; supplemental papers, antiques and descriptive of special incidents. "Pictures of the War West" by M. V. Hall, etc., etc. We have not space to announce all the new features. Let us send you (free) our "Catalogue of Special Publications," with original illustrations, containing full prospectus, special offer of back numbers to the beginning of the Siberian papers, etc. The November number, which begins the new volume, is for sale everywhere after November 1st. THE CENTURY costs 35 cents a number, $4.00 a year. Address THE CENTURY CO., 35 East 73rd street, New York.
